

Business Student of the Year

Ashley Reynaud

Ashley demonstrates the qualities all community college educators love; she is an avid learner, embraces the concept of community, and is willing to serve. Ashley is a member of Phi Theta Kappa, is active in her church, works part time, and volunteers to tutor fellow students. Her leadership in the classroom is much appreciated by all her instructors. Ashley graduates this year, and we know her future is bright!

CONGRATULATIONS!