

Excellence in Digital Media Technology

Elliot Hand-Thoennes

Elliot has truly excelled in Digital Media. Elliot's illustration and design work far surpass what is considered great work, and could compete with any student at a University level. Elliot has an eye for design that is among the best to grace us here at Mitchell. The process of design that is followed is meticulous from beginning to end. Their professionalism is truly rare and refreshing. Elliot is a student that will be able to determine their own success, because they have the courage and determination to be extraordinary at everything they strive to achieve. It is a great, great honor to present Elliot the Excellence in Digital Media Technology Award!

CONGRATULATIONS!
