

2020 Viola Kimbrough Parker Diversity Award

Victor Jesus Paxon

Each year, Mitchell Community College recognizes individuals in the student body who exemplify the life of Dr. Martin Luther King. The award is named for the late Viola Kimbrough Parker, a former employee and community leader who devoted her life to the betterment of all. For a student to stand out and be seen as friendly and helpful with everyone is quite a compliment. Victor student displays an open mind, welcoming new ideas and hopes to make a difference in the world. He is seen spreading joy to others, and lending a hand to anyone who needs it. Victor was nominated by his peers because their lives are better knowing him, and so is Mitchell Community College.

CONGRATULATIONS!
